

Nancy M. Bacon

is Senior Vice President of Energy Conversion Devices, Inc. (ECD Ovonic), a member of the boards of directors of United Solar Ovonic Corp. (a wholly owned subsidiary of ECD), Sovlux Ltd. and Sovlux Battery (ECD Ovonic's solar and battery joint ventures with KVANT and the Russian Ministry of Atomic Energy), Environmental and Energy Study Institute (EESI), and the United States Industry Coalition (USIC).

At ECD Ovonic, Ms. Bacon's responsibilities include finance, public and private financing, development of business and strategic plans, and presentation to major international corporations for the commercialization of ECD Ovonic technologies and inventions; negotiation for establishment of joint ventures and licensing of company technologies, as well as being responsible for the administration of government relations, proposals, and contracts.

In 1997, Ms. Bacon was recognized by Crain's Detroit Business as one of Detroit's Most Influential Women. Ms. Bacon has a B.S. in Accounting and is a certified public accountant (CPA). Prior to joining ECD Ovonic, she was a manager at Deloitte & Touche.

Corporate Headquarters

2956 Waterview Drive
Rochester Hills, MI 48309
United States of America
Telephone: 248-293-0440
Facsimile: 248-844-1214

www.ovonic.com
investor.relations@ovonic.com

March 2004